Plastic Free Campus Policy

Plastic, being a hazardous element, is creating a major threat to the organism including human being in the world. So, it is one of the responsibilities of every citizen of our country is to "say no to plastic" and to create awareness among the community about the impact of use of plastic and encourage to avoid plastic. Hence, the Habraghat Mahavidyalaya has initiated to create a plastic free campus.

As a part of implementation of plastic free campus policy, the College follows the following strategies-

- The whole campus is plastic free zone.
- No one is allowed to use Single Use plastics, plastic bags, bottles and utensils.
- Compostable elements like- Paper Bags can be used.
- No one can use and through Plastic Packets of Packaged food.
- If any one finds plastic/polythene lying in the campus should drop in the dustbin.
- For creation awareness among the students about the use of plastic the IQAC and NSS Unit has organized various awareness programmes.
- Different posters, Banners, etc. are displayed for "No Use of Plastic".
- Dustbins are placed in different corners of the college and side by side of the pedestrian friendly path.
